DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO RESPOND TO THE GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR A PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

NOW HERE COMES the defendant, Francis Keough, and respectfully requests this Honorable Court to extend the time deadline for his response to the Government's motion for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture from July 26, 2007 until August 2, 2007. As grounds therefore, and in support thereof, counsel for the defendant states that he has been on previously scheduled family vacation from July 13, 2007 until July 22, 2007, and has been unable to devote time and preparation to the response to the Government's Motion; that the defendant has only recently arrived at his designated prison facility in Pennsylvania, and counsel has not been able to arrange to communicate with the defendant regarding this issue. Undersigned counsel states that the delay of one week in its response will not unduly prejudice either side in this matter.

Furthermore, the Government has assented to this one week extension to file our response.

Wherefore, the defendant respectfully requests that this motion be allowed for the above reasons.
